9	Analysis	Description
0	Raw Data	the raw data provided to us was collected from 2020-09 to 2021-02 and showed how many customers viewed the page, added an item to their shopping cart, and made purchases. the data was collected when people would interact with the website
11	Conversion Funnel	when examining the raw data we used the count of unique users to show how many people different individuals were on the website, how many of those from the website added an item to their cart, and the number of them that made the purchase a
12	Retention Rates	the retention rates were based off of the cohorts created. the cohorts were formed into groups by months purchased. we tracked these cohorts over 4 months after their initial purchase to see how many made purchases in the following months and w
